Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 1600 on Monday 26 Apr 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Cloudy and showery with strong northeasterly winds.

This Evening and Tonight:
Rather cloudy with showers frequent for most, perhaps merging to longer periods of rain at times, except towards the southern end of the Great Glen. Northeasterly winds will be brisk in the west. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tuesday:
Rather cloudy and showery. Strong northeasterly winds focusing the bulk of showers in the north, where they will turn heavy at times. Best of limited brightness in Lochaber. Maximum temperature 10 deg C (50 deg F).

Outlook for Wednesday to Friday:
North to northeast flow continuing to feed showers across the area, again with the bulk of outbreaks focused across eastern and northern parts. Southwest seeing the best of the shelter.
